CONVENTION CHEERS "HYPHEN" PLANK;
RUSHES THE WILSON PLATFORM THROUGHRUSSIANS CAPTURE 14,000; STILL DRIVING AHEAD AFTER
AUSTRIANS QUIT CZERNOWITZ

Over 164,000 Prisoners Now
Claimed for Czar's Forces
Since Offensive Began.

AUSTRIANS ARE SPLIT.
Wedge 40 Miles Deep and 75
Miles Long Driven Between Armies.

PIETROGRAD (via London), June 16.—The capture of an additional 100 officers and 14,000 men was announced to-day by the War Office. The Russian successes in the offensive along the southern front are continuing, the statement declares.

[With the prisoners already claimed by the Russians, this makes a total of over 164,000 they have taken since the present great offensive began.]

Russian troops have entered Czernowitz, the ancient capital of Bukovina, which has been completely evacuated by the Austrians, according to a telegram from Bucharest received here by the Government's semi-official Petrograd News Agency. In their flight, the Austrians are said to have taken with them a large number of arrested civilians. It is added that their railroad stock has been sent to Iskani and that they have torn up the tracks as far as Volksgraben, a few miles to the southwest, after despatching many trains loaded with wounded to Dornavara. Staff officers of the Russian War Office assert that the Russians now occupy the entire line along the River Strypa, and that a wedge forty miles deep and seventy-five miles long has been driven into the enemy's front in Volhynia. This wedge separates the Austrian and German armies and threatens Kovel, one of the most important railway centers and bases along the entire line.

The second wedge, south of the Dniester, is thirty-five miles deep and thirty-five miles wide, isolating all of Bukovina. Both wedges are steadily increasing as the Russians drive on.

Prisoners declare the Germans are taking up positions to the rear of the Austrians and shooting them when they threaten to retire in the face of the Russian advance.

TWO GERMAN CRUISERS
WERE SUNK BY RUSSIANS

Berlin Now Admits the Loss of the Herrmann in Baltic Battle.

BERLIN (via wireless), June 16.—The German auxiliary steamer Herrmann was attacked by four Russian destroyers in Norrköping Bay Wednesday, it was announced to-day, and after making heroic resistance, caught fire. The crew sank the Herrmann. The commander and a large part of the crew are reported safe.

This is the first official announcement by Germany of the recent Baltic battle. The cruiser König von Sachsen was also lost. The two warships were towing fourteen merchant vessels, only two of which have been accounted for.

DONALD McLEAN HELD FOR ROBBERY CHARGE

New York Lawyer Arrested in Maryland for Alleged Theft of $8,000.

Donald McLean, the New York lawyer whose arrest at Frederick, Md., was reported to-day, is under indictment for grand larceny. A true bill was brought on June 1 charging him with wrongfully withholding $8,000 from the Third Reformed Presbyterian Church of No. 238 West Twenty-third Street. Alexander D. McNellie, of No. 32 Monroe Street, Brooklyn, is the complaining witness.

Mr. McLean was for years treasurer of the church, and the trustees brought suit against him some time ago to recover $14,000 which they alleged they had given to him for investment. In the indictment it is charged that the larceny of the $8,000 took place on March 29, 1915. Mrs. McLean, who died recently, was for many years President General of the D. A. R.

"THE HAPPY MAN"

Suicide of Ruben L. Shutt, Worth
$25,000, Belies His Rooming House Nickname.

Ruben L. Shutt, who was known as the "happy man" in the rooming house at No. 314 West Fifty-third Street, was found dead in bed this morning, a suicide by gas. He had made elaborate arrangements to insure his death.

Shutt had been employed as head bookkeeper for the J. G. Curtis & Son packing plant at the foot of West Fifty-ninth Street for eighteen years. Mr. Curtis said the man had always borne a good record, that his accounts were straight, and that he was worth about $25,000.

Shutt was married and had a summer home at Hudson, N. Y.

MARIAN LAMBERT'S
COAT BIG FACTOR
AT ORPET TRIAL

Stains on the Garment Put Defense and Prosecution to Hard Test.

CYANIDE, SAYS EXPERT.

Another Insists the Poison in Liquid Form Killed Girl—
Defense Combats Theory.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., June 16.—A factor in the defense of Will Orpet, charged with the murder of Marian Lambert, was brought out in court to-day when cross-examination of Dr. Ralph W. Webster, toxicologist, was resumed by Attorney Ralph F. Potter of the defense.

Mr. Potter brought out that nearly three months elapsed from the finding of Marian's body, Feb. 10, to May 5, when the dead girl's coat and other garments were brought to Dr. Webster to have stains on them analyzed. The coat introduced in evidence yesterday showed three circular white spots, the marks, the witness said, of cyanide of potassium.

Orpet's lawyers had established by expert testimony the fact that cyanide crystals would dissolve when brought into contact with moisture in the air. The State's theory was that the poison that killed Marian was in liquid form; that Orpet took it to the woods in a bottle he is known to have bought and that he carried the bottle away with him after the girl was dead.

After the State had offered proof that stains on Marian's face and hands indicated it was liquid poison, the defense proved by the same witnesses that the poison might have been turned into liquid form by the air while the body lay in the woods. This destroyed for the time the effect of the State's contention, but the prosecutor came back strong with Dr. Webster.

Holding up the dark green coat worn by Marian, Dr. Webster pointed to three circular white spots on it. These spots had not been visible when the coat was removed from the body, the undertaker swore, but were brought out by the heat in the room. "In my opinion," testified Dr. Webster, "this substance is the potassium carbonate which remains from a solution of cyanide of potassium after evaporation. Its circular form, if nothing else, indicates that it dropped in liquid form."

As it could have dropped only as Marian drained the poison, his testimony left a strong impression that what she took was in liquid form and that somebody removed the container before the body was found.

Dr. William S. McNally, chemist to the coroner's office at Chicago, testified that cyanide of potassium in liquid form would cause death quicker than the solid poison. He said he had found three and ninety-one hun-

Will Spend Week-End in Capital, Returning Here
Monday.

Charles E. Hughes left for Washington at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon to spend the week-end with his family, intending to return to New York early Monday morning. His last day of keeping an open door at the Hotel Astor was marked by a recurrence of the tide of repentant Progressives and the calls of numerous Governors.

Gov. Whitman of New York had the longest interview with the Presidential candidate and posed with him for a picture.

"I found Mr. Hughes in admirable condition and eager to make an active campaign," said Gov. Whitman. "I am very confident of success in the campaign and election of the entire Republican ticket."

"What part do you intend to take?" he was asked.

"Oh, among other things, I shall have to look out for my own reelection," replied Mr. Whitman.

All that Mr. Hughes would say about the conference was that he was glad to see the Governor and had had a pleasant interview with him.

In the conference for a time was Myron T. Herrick, former Governor of Ohio, former Ambassador to France, and Republican candidate for Senator from the Buckeye State.

Mr. Herrick was asked concerning the attitude of the people of Ohio toward the hyphenates.

"The German citizens of Ohio and its foreign-born citizens generally do not differ in their loyalty to the United States from any other class of citizens," replied Mr. Herrick. "We find in the leading cities, even in Cincinnati, that they are practically all loyal Americans. A large proportion of our foreign-born citizens are Republicans and will support the Republican ticket. They resent being put in a class different from other citizens. They resent the attempt to fasten on them a hyphen and they regard it as an unjust and unfair application."

There are, of course, certain individuals among them who do not think so, but these do not represent the mass of our foreign-born citizens and should not be classed with them. The next to be received was Henry L. Stimson of New York, who had a long talk with Mr. Hughes on political conditions.

CONGRATULATIONS

Marshall at His Command in "Fight
Which You Are to Win."

WASHINGTON, June 16.—President Wilson early to-day received the following telegram from Vice-President Marshall at Indianapolis:

"In the fight which you are to win, I am always yours to command."

Mr. Marshall's message was one of hundreds received. The President was in a happy frame of mind. He rose early enough to read newspaper accounts of his nomination, of which he had been notified by Secretary Taft just as he was retiring at 1 o'clock.

SHACKLETON GOING BACK TO RESCUE HIS MEN

Ready to Leave the Falklands for Elephant Island, Where Party Is Marooned.

LONDON, June 16.—A Reuter despatch says that Lieut. Shackleton is about to leave the Falklands to rescue the men of his party left on Elephant Island.

Sir Ernest Shackleton, who started on a South Polar expedition on Jan. 19, 1915, met disaster and his fate was not known until, on May 31, he called The World that he had arrived at Port Stanley with five men and that twenty-two others of his party had been left on Elephant Island.

About two months previously, another section of the Shackleton party, which had taken a different route, heading for Ross Sea to meet the explorer at the end of his journey, arrived at New Zealand with stories of hardship and a report that ten men who had been separated from the party had been left behind.

Elephant Island is one of the South Shetland group and is about six miles due south of Port Stanley, Falkland Islands. For the greater part of the year the Shetlands are covered with snow and grow only mosses and scanty grass. However, the abundance of seals and sea food afford a good food and fuel supply for the twenty-two men awaiting relief.

AVIATOR HURT IN JAPAN.

American Pilot Falls 500 Feet in Exhibition Flight.

SANFORD, HOKKAIDO, Japan, June 16.—Arthur Smith, an American aviator, fell from a height of 500 feet while giving an exhibition flight here this afternoon before a great crowd.

Smith had just completed "looping-the-loop" when the airplane crashed to the ground. The accident is believed to have been due to a defective motor.

Smith reached Hokkaido after making a brilliant tour of Japan. The crash took place at a climax with a great exhibition given at the Taito Palace arranged for Emperor Yoshihito.

ROOSEVELT MUST STAY IN SECLUSION,
DOCTOR ORDERS

Concern Over Colonel's Latest
Turn Prompts Physician to Send Him to Bed.

HIS VOICE IS AFFECTED.

Sees Few Visitors and Will Go to Oyster Bay To-Morrow.

Col. Roosevelt's condition is such to-day that he has been compelled to heed the repeated warnings of his physicians and take to his bed. Ever since the Convention he has refused to obey the orders the medical men have issued, and has sought to convince himself of their needlessness. But they were evidently able to see further into the future than the Colonel permitted himself to see. He had a severe attack of coughing last night and to-day was able to speak only in a whisper.

The pain in his left side was so acute this morning that word was sent to Dr. Herbert V. Guile, who hastened to the Hotel Langdon, Fifteenth Street and Fifth Avenue, where Col. Roosevelt has been staying for the last few days.

A quick examination of his patient convinced Dr. Guile that a more thorough investigation of the Colonel's condition should be made without delay. So Dr. Guile took him and Mrs. Roosevelt to his office at No. 924 West End Avenue, and there made a searching examination.

The result of it was to order Col. Roosevelt to bed at once, with a warning that he must take care of himself in every possible way, and above all that he must not receive visitors or subject himself to the strain of talking.

In spite of this warning Col. Roosevelt insisted upon seeing Everett Colby, leader of the Progressives of New Jersey, who has already declared himself for Hughes. The confab lasted only a short time, however.

He also had a brief conference with George W. Perkins, the "Lady Bountiful" of the Progressives, and President W. Whitridge, President of the Third Avenue Railway Company. The subject of these talks was withheld by his visitors.

Afterward Col. Roosevelt went reluctantly to his bed, where he had been told to remain the rest of the day. Tomorrow he will return to Oyster Bay and under the imperative orders of his physicians, will keep in practical seclusion for a week at least.

When reporters went to the hotel before he left for the physician's office his voice was so weak that he could scarcely whisper. Mrs. Roosevelt, who stood near him, raised her hand in warning and supplication that they would not persist in their questioning of him.

Col. Roosevelt said, however: "The trouble is really trivial, simply a couple of tendons snapped. I have a heavy cold in the chest and whenever I cough it distresses me. When I get rid of the cold it will all disappear in a natural way."

In Arthur B. Duff, another of Col. Roosevelt's physicians, said: "The Colonel has a very irritating cough, but it is absolutely nothing serious. It is distressing and painful, but purely a local condition. Dr. Duff's son-in-law, has strapped him up so as to alleviate the pain as much as possible. This local condition is improving very rapidly and I look for a quick recovery in a couple of days."

SPEND SUNDAY IN THE MOUNTAINS.
Mr. Roosevelt, after his recovery from the accident, will spend Sunday in the mountains. He will be accompanied by his family and a small party of friends. The trip is expected to be a very pleasant one.

DISLOYAL PLOTS IN U. S.
DENOUNCED BY DEMOCRATS
IN THEIR PARTY PLATFORM

"We Condemn," Says the Resolution,
"All Alliances and Combinations of Individuals of Whatever Nationality or Descent for Purpose of Weakening the Government."

TO KEEP ARMY IN MEXICO
TILL TROUBLE IS OVER

By Martin Green.
(Special Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION HALL, ST. LOUIS, June 16.—The Democratic National Convention to-day adopted the Americanism platform which was forced through the Committee on Resolutions last night by President Wilson. It was reported that he refused to permit any change, even the dotting of an "i" or crossing of a "t." Delay in reporting the platform was caused to-day by a fight over the Woman's Suffrage plank.

It was 12:30 o'clock when Senator William J. Stone of Missouri, Chairman of the Committee, appeared on the stage with the platform upon which Woodrow Wilson will go before the people. Senator Stone said he hadn't had a moment of sleep in more than thirty hours, and would pass the task of reading the voluminous document to somebody else. He introduced Senator Walsh of Montana, who began to read the platform through the most abundant mustache in the whole convention.

During the reading there were significant outbursts of applause. Especially significant was the reception of the anti-hyphen plank and the one upholding the course of Wilson on the Mexican question.

SUPREME ISSUE IS AMERICANISM.

Sections which relate to hyphenates, Mexico and protection of our citizens follow:

"The part that the United States will play in the new day of international relationships which is now upon us will depend upon our preparation and our character. The Democratic party recognizes the assertion and triumphant demonstration of the individuality and coherent strength of the nation; therefore, as the supreme issue of this day, in which the whole world faces the crisis of manifold change, it summons all men, of whatever origin or creed, who would count themselves Americans, to join in making clear to all the world the unity and consequent power of America."

"This is an issue of patriotism. To taint it with partisanship would be to defile it. In this day of test, America must show itself not a nation of partisans but a nation of patriots. There is gathered here in America the best of the blood, the industry and the genius of the whole world, the elements of a great race and a magnificent society to be melted into a mighty and splendid nation."

"Whoever, actuated by the purpose to promote the interest of a foreign power, in disregard of our own country's welfare, or to injure this Government in its foreign relations, or to cripple or destroy its industries at home; and whoever, by arousing prejudices of a racial, religious or other nature, creates discord and strife among our people so as to obstruct the wholesome process of unification, is faithless to the trust which the privileges of citizenship repose in him and disloyal to his country."

HYPHENISM IS DENOUNCED.

"We, therefore, condemn as subversive of this nation's unity and integrity, and as destructive of its welfare, the activities and designs of a fevory group or organization, political or otherwise, that has for its object the advancement of the interest of a foreign power, whether such object is promoted by intimidating the Government, a political party, or representatives of the people, or which is calculated and tends to divide our people into antagonistic groups; and thus to destroy that complete agreement and solidarity of the people, and that unity of sentiment and national purpose, so essential to the perpetuity of the nation and its free institutions."

"We condemn all alliances and combinations of individuals in this country, of whatever nationality or descent, who agree and conspire together for the purpose of embarrassing or weakening our Government or of improperly influencing or coercing our public representatives in dealing or negotiating with any foreign power. We charge that such conspiracies among a limited number exist and have been instigated for the purpose of advancing the interests of foreign countries to the prejudice and detriment of our own country. We condemn any political party which in view of
